Comments: I was elated to rediscover genealogical information which I had feared had been lost following the deaths of my great-aunts Fedora and Rowena from Franklin, Maine, the last of whom passed away in the early '80s. My sons and I got the heritage bug after visiting my brother Tobey Woodworth in Brant Rock, MA in 2006 and venturing to the Mayflower II museum in Plymouth. Thank you all for your diligent work. Now I will start looking back down the Whitaker and Chase lines from my mother's family!

HI Woody,

Comments:

It has been years since I connected with you and autumnight. I actually met her a few years back. My hubby and I have traveled extensively with his job.....now we are somewhat settled. My great grandmother was Minnie Elizabeth Woodworth I remember her well. I have lost contact with alot of the famiy sorry to say. I know they are scattered. I would like information on the Woodworth West Coast Reunion in 2008....I actually might be able to make that! Awesome! Thanks for all your hard work keeping all us "Cussins" connected! I would love to hear from any or all...fun to know we are a part of a bigger family!

Comments: Just starting to get going. Not easy no person to help. I know for a fact at least Eugene Woodworth- b:Feb. 14 1846 d:May 09 1895. M: Catherine B. Fredenburg b:1848 d:1917 son Ernest Woodworth b:April 29 1882 d:Jan.08 1913 son Wendall Woodworth b: Jan. 31 1911 d:Aug. 03 1977 son Clayton Ernest Woodworth b: May 26 1945 son "myself" Mark Ernest Woodworth b:Oct.24 1971. I have farther back than that but not sure if its true. Like I said I'm doing this on my own. Any and all help will be appreciated very much. The family I'm sure about came out of New York then all I know is something about Athens, MI. then starting a school or something like that in a small town called Factoryville MI.

Comments: Woody, Thought I would share our findings with you and the group on David and Sheran Woodworth, 19800 Descanso, Tehachapi CA 93561. We stayed at Stallion Springs Resort, 16 miles west of Tehachapi for a week. We called David and were referred to 559-641-7731. Come to find out David and Sheran are building a home at 7730 Laurel Way, Fish Camp CA 93623. They are in Tehachapi only about two weeks a year. Had a good visit with Sheran and she stated they are putting all their antique trailer collection in museums, the main one at Elkhart IN. I checked David's web site and it is very interesting and includes two videos. Didn't realize David was on the Today Show in one of his Model T vehicles driving in Yosemite. Sheran gave me modelttours@sti.net for their email address and the web site is www.driveamodelt.com. Hope all you folks will check out the web site and pass on the information. Not sure if that was David and Sheran's house being built when we went through Fish Camp last October. --
We enjoyed the Woodworth West Coast Reunion at Jack Tone Ranch in Stockton CA.

His Daughter Martha married Zachary Damon.
Since I have three other connections to the Mayflower (Boy there was a lot of intermarrying goin' on back then) Walters wife's not a concern of mine but it is a great tragedy that I find my self related to the Moron currently inhabiting the White house. I guess it is really true that ya' can pick your friends but not your relatives

Comments: YES!!! I am another 'Woody'!! My husband & I did attend one of the Californis Woodworth Reunions, shortly before his death. I was greatly pleased to meet and get to know my 'Cuzzins'!! I have missed Paulene greatly!! She was such an inspiration!! I have met & had contact with Carl Webb but not for quite awhile. I would like to attend another Reunion but it isn't possible this year. I do have some Lineages that I am most happy to share. I just copied off a new copy for my youngest Granddaughter for a Wedding Gift!! Hope to hear from any of you, but it may take me a bit of time to respond but don't fret!! I DO reply!!
All best wishes to all!!

Comments: why did you not give credit to Paulene VanderVolgen for her many years and dedication collecting the info contained in the official Woodworth Family History book that is at the Library of Congress?

WEBMEISTER'S NOTE: I knew Paulene through correspondence. Her grandmother was a Woodworth.

Your information does not agree with information I've been able to find. After considerable checking, I found that the book you reference is one jointly written by Paulene (Pettit) VanderVolgen and Loretta (Pettit) Kanelos (sisters). It is about Alonzo Woodworth, their great grandfather and 8th generation descendant of Walter Woodworth, and Alonzo's descendants. However, Amazon.com lists only Loretta Kanelos as the author.

Paulene never wrote a book about the history of Woodworths of America. There was some discussion about them republishing a book previously written by Harry Rice, b 1847, and published after his death by his wife Anne Rice. However, Harry Rice extensively exchanged his information with Maurice Woodworth of Tulsa, OK, and that data is generally included in the Jeanette Woodworth book. Jeanette had been working with Maurice and James Pierce prior to their death, and she managed to publish their combined works prior to her impending death from cancer.

Fran Hall Jenner-1944

Freda Woodworth Hall-1912

Charles E. Woodworth-1885

Edwin/Edward George Woodworth-1855

Henry C. Woodworth-1821
Harry Woodworth-1797
Joshua Woodworth-1757
Eliphalet Woodworth-1722
Ebenezer Woodworth-1690-91
Benjamin Woodworth-1638-1646
Walter Woodworth

Comments: The Woodworths seem to parallel the Manns from the 1500's in Kent, to the mid 1800's in Ontario Canada. I wonder if you have any record of an "Amy"(Anny, Annie, Anne, Hannah, or Emmy) Woodworth (b: abt 1771) married to Joseph (Captain) Mann abt 1790, living in Webster's Landing,(Syracuse), Onodaga, NY from abt 1790 to around 1814 when they moved to Wllington Twp, Ontario, Canada with their 7 children? I believe Joseph was born in Middlesex, Mass abt 1765. 1790 census also shows them (in transit?) at Albany, NY, pesumably via CT.

Comments: My sister-in-law is a descendant of Cordelia Eunice Woodworth, daughter of Samuel Swazee Woodworth & Symantha Bushnell; Cordelia and her parents are found on page 357 of Volume I of The Woodworth Family of America.

I am a family historian and I work in the genealogy department of the Carlsbad (CA) City Library. I was happy to discover the Woodworth book on our shelves after only a couple months of searching census records [book indexes, film, Ancestry.com and HeritageQuest Online]. The book appears to be well-researched and documented, and makes so many others pale by comparison [like one I found which gave 3 books and "hundreds of census records" as sources].

Happy Ancestor Hunting!! Keep up the good work!

Comments: Second visit-with much help from Marvin, Jim,the Woodworth websites, and my father's records,my sister and I have found we are descended from Walter by: Benjamin/Ebenezer/Eliphalet/Eliphalet(jr)/Chester/Earl Harrison (by Chester's 2nd wife Amanda Fuller Allen)/Eugene Earl/ and Phillip Johnson (my father). My sister and I are gen 10 with 4 gen 11s, and 1 gen 12 and another on the way! I also have received a large amount of confirmation of information from a person I contacted on the Athens, Ohio message boards after clicking on the Ohio History Network. Through this I have located Greens Run, Ohio; the True Cemetery, and received some excerpts of delightful notes and diary entries from our Johnson/Woodworth family ties. I grew up in Athens and in many of the sites and lines I find many mentions of the Woodworth's that used to be there. I would be interested in hearing from anyone with more information on the Ohio Woodworths and particularly Amanda Fuller Allen, who was my great-great-grandmother married to Chester. It looks like Chester was the first Woodworth to move to Athens county.

Comments: I am researching my Woodworth line and your site has been very helpful. My great Aunt is in her 90's and she has been our "family historian". She is always anxious to see what I have come up with on line! Back when she started her research, she actually travelled to Sciate and England and all of her notes are hand-written. I have transcribed her notes, etc., and put them into my computer and someday I hope to be able to get it "all together"! My great grandmother's name was Cordelia Eunice Woodworth b. 1875, she married Carroll Francis Boardman in 1900 and my Great Aunt Gladys Boardman Amos is the only one of their children left. I try to correspond with her every week and it's very nice to have this common interest. Our line goes like this:
Walter Woodworth, Benjamin, Caleb, Amos, Amos
Samuel Swazee Woodworth b. 13 Apr 1834 d. 9 Aug 1909 Married 1st to Cordelia Steel and had 4 children, married 2nd to Samantha (who preferred Symantha) Bushnell and had 1 child, Cordelia Eunice Woodworth, my great grandmother who married Carroll Francis Boardman. Samuel, Samantha, Grandma Eunice and Grandpa Boardman are all buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Chittenango, NY (Madison County); along with one of Samuel's sons from his first marriage, Harvey and his wife Anna Walrath Woodworth. I visit these graves several times each year. Thank you, again for such nice work!

Comments: I have what I assume to be a condensed version of Jeanette Behan's book put together by an Annie Wallace of Halifax. It traces our particular lineage from Walter to 1792 and the marriage of Stephen Woodworth to Anne Richardson; then it stops, mid-sentence. So I have Walter/Thomas/Hezekiah/Elihu/Thomas/Stephen ... then ??? ... then George Edward (m. Helen Newman), my great-grandfather; then my grandfather, Hiram Robinson "Robbie" Woodworth (m. Margaret May "Mae-Mae" Taylor); then my mother, Retha Helen Woodworth. I am missing a few generations between Stephen and George. Anyone out there have some clues?

I was under the understanding that Walter Woodworth sailed from England on the Mary and John in 1630. This is detailed in a hand written Geneology.

My Grandmother was Estella (Woodworth) Farnsworth, Brewer. Her mother was Sylvia Demaris Woodworth, daughter of Harvey Lewis Woodworth born Apr. 13, 1853 Sylvia married Wm. Farnsworth 11/7/1871 in Plainsville, NY. I believe there were 10 children to that union. Estella, my grandmother, (5/16/79)

He married a Newfoundlander from one of the oldest settlements in North America- a little town called Cupids. With frequent trips back to N.S. he has stayed in NFLD since the 1940s. My family has several copies of Jeanette's book and I read it from time to time. I have always been interested in genealogy and my twin sister has done a little work in that field. Anyways, if you need some information on the past three generations of Woodworth's who travelled to Newfoundland let me know!! My generation is the latest, being born between 1977 (for my sister and I)until 1985.

Comments: I am 14 and I was looking for some family back ground on my mothers side of the family and desided to look under woodworth. when I saw walter woodward. I remember my grandpa saying that my grandma's ancesters changed there name from woodward to woodworth. i also have a book infront of me that is called the descendants of Thomas and Joseph woodworth. I found this book recently and desided to see if I could find any people in the book that are my ancestors so I found this site.

Comments: My great great grandfather was born in 1805 near Runcorn and which may have been in Childwall parish at that time. I have found an Isabella Woodworth who died in 1637 in Runcorn parish register but none others between. I was born in Chester in 1920 which is 20 miles from Childwall. I wonder if there is any connection with the Henry line

Comments: I was looking for MUNK relatives when I found Susan Avery who married Adam Munk. Susan was the daughter of Jasper Avery and Sarah Sidmore (or Scidmore) who moved to Jefferson County NY from Saratoga County. One of their sons was named Ephraim Woodworth Avery. A quick check on google.com led me to Capt Ephraim (or is it Ephriam) Woodworth (Walter, Benjamin, Caleb, Ephraim) who also resided in Saratoga County and participated in the Battle of Bemis Heights. I wonder why Jasper Avery's son was named for Ephraim. Was he a relative, or was it simply to honor a friend, or war comrade? Anyone with any ideas or information?

(1755-1825) m. 1778 Elizabeth Morey (1756-1826) His father was Amasa Woodworth (1727-) m. ca 1748 Hannah Morey (1732-) in Lebanon, Ct.

I am looking for church records or VRs to verify some of this information and to fill in some of the blanks.

Do you have any information on these families? Amasa born in Lebanon, Ct went to Nova Scotia in 1760. returned to CT in 1772 and then went to Essex, VT.

Comments: I am fairly sure my husband's line is traceable to Lafayette Woodworth, which i think has been mentioned in vol. 2. I have e-mailed Woody several times with info re Lafayette as I think his daughter married Charles Larabee son of Ira Larabee in Wi. Charles and Frances have been mentioned in the 1870 and 1880 census also with following children Theron, Rosa and Sumner all born in Wi. I did find papers in amongst Theron's papers the following which adds credence to my belief. A calling card with name Lafay which I assume short for Lafayette, a wedding invitation for William 1900 in Ia. A receipt from a Tobacco, and Cigar store with Joel Woodworth Proprietor, and Have been told Frances was a Woodworth. These were all children of Lafayette. I am interested in vol. 1 and 2 if there is a connection I any of you folks can help really appreciated.. Sincerely Marilyn Dye. P,S. The reason I mentioned Woody is he thinks I have some good sources and may be of interest. I have not been able to get a hold of Jim, I know he is VERY busy,But I plan on writing a letter . Comments: I am a descendant of Nova Scotia Woodworths who, we understand, were not descended from Joseph, Silas, et al who emigrated to Nova Scotia when the Acadians were uprooted and their land sold to English loyalists. (Although my great-grandfather's name was Silas Woodworth, and his father's name was Silas Woodworth. There are also Josephs and more recently Allan (my father and his father).) We understand our ancestor was a British soldier in Quebec in the 1700s. Wish someone could help!!! I follow the Woodworth emails and am a member of the Woodworth group, hoping some day to have an answer.

My name is Ed. My line is Walter to Benjamin to Caleb to Selah to Rosewell to William Rosewell to William Selah to Anna Mea (Woodworth) Ahern to Jean Anne (Ahern) Vannoy to me on to Iko Vannoy/Kuromori. I was born in Lincoln, Nebraska and now reside in Sapporo, Japan. I grew up listening to Mom and Grandma talking about the family tree. I haven't taken it any further yet myself, but then Mom is still going at it. In fact, Mom told me about this page. She said that it shows me to be a seventh cousin once removed to Ex-President Bush which would make me seventh cousin to the Bush who still hasn't won the election in Florida. Since I am not really a Bush fan I don't know how this makes me feel...

Thomas/Paul/Philip/Me.

My G.G'father, Thomas Bell Woodworth (1841-1904)settled in Caseville in Huron County in the 1960s. Thomas was an attorney. Among his children was Paul W. who was an attorney and moved from Caseville to the county seat, Bad Axe, when he was elected county prosecuting attorney.

Paul had two sons,my father Philip W (1918-1978) and James Fred W (1921-1980). Both were attorneys in Bad Axe.

My father has two sons, myself (1947-____) and my brother Paul (1943-____). I am an attorney in Bad Axe.

My uncle James Fred W has four children, one of whom, Tami Woodworth Salens (1960-____) practices law in Bad Axe with her husband Walter.

Tami and I are both fourth generation Woodworths practicing law in Huron County. Except for a brief interruption from 1945-1947 because of WWII, there has been a Woodworth practicing law in Huron County for 131 consecutive years.

I'd like to hear from other relatives/cousins from other branches of

I'm proud to be a part of the Woodworth line, oh and if anyone wants to know, I'm a decendant of Joseph Woodworth, Walter's son. The Woodworth name stayed in my line all the way up to 1884 ending with Mamie Woodworth, daughter of William A. Woodworth, granddaughter of Alonzo Woodworth. I hope more can be found about the Woodworths in England before Walter, I think that would be the greatest accomplishment, and also extremely interesting.

Comments: Greetings to any relatives, however distant!

I am 'gobsmacked' at how many Woodworths there are in the US and Canada - there aren't that many of us left in the UK!
I have traced one line of Woodworths in the UK to people born in the 1680s or thereabouts on the Lancashire/Yorkshire border in N England, but I know they were around there in the very early 1600s. Anyone researching Woodworth ancestors in the UK should at least be aware of this line (some of it is in the IGI).

In the 1700s - mid 1800s in particular Woodworth, Woodward and Woodart/d (and Woodruff) were used pretty promiscuously, so don't make the mistake I made of looking for Woodworths only - no doubt the situation was the same in the US. There is some evidence that the name was pronounced "Woodert" or "Wooderth".

There's obviously nothing I can tell anyone about Walter Woodworth's ancestry, but I'm sure it will come to light one day. I presume other Woodworths came to the US later. Any Woodworth coming from the Lancashire area might well have been Catholic - this was almost the last refuge of the Catholics, even before the Irish influx in the mid-19thC.

Good Luck, Chris W
