Hello, I'm researching my family tree, my fathers mother was Hannah McDougall, her family line is a direct descendant to the Woodworth family of Scituate, Plymouth, Province of Massachusetts. I would like to learn more about my family and am excited to see their history is recorded. I live in Adelaide SA, my grandfather James Blackie McDougall emigrated from Nova Scotia in I'm guessing around 1887. His mother was Hannah Woodworth also of Nova Scotia however her family line leads directly back to the Woodworths of Massachusetts. Please contact me if there is anything I may be able to help with information wise, but I would very much like to know more and in particular photos. Thank you, kindest regards Lanie (M'Lanie) Baker

I'm a direct Woodworth descendant on my mother's side (Frances Woodworth) and appear to be able to trace my roots directly back to Walter Woodworth, my 8th great grandfather. I really appreciate the information you've put together on this website since all of my descendants are deceased and I didn't ask question when they were alive. I do have some hand written notes my mother left that go back to my great grandfather but I found an error in his birth place. So, as you've stated, errors can be commonplace when tracing one's family roots.

Greetings: I am a descendant of Walter Woodworth. My great-great grandmother was Sarah Sophronia Woodworth who was the first wife of my great-great grandfather Thomas Hatch who served in the 7th Michigan Infantry during the Civil War. Two of Sarah's four half-brothers served in the 12th Michigan Infantry and a third in the 6th Michigan Cavalry. Sarah's father, Bradley Woodworth was born in Connecticut. Swift Woodworth served in the Revolutionary War and was at Bunker (Breed's) Hill. My family traces back to Walter's son Benjamin. Going forward from Sarah her daughter Emma Isabelle Hatch married Charles Wesley Bright and their daughter Bessie Belle married Frank Meyer and their daughter Rhea Belle married Charles Savchuk and gave birth to me: Brent Savchuk. I have the birth and death dates and places. Another ancestor Benjamin ("Uncle Ben") was a significant Michigan pioneer. I live in the northern Indiana town of Goshen and was born in Battle Creek, Michigan October 8, 1954 (age 65). This is a brief sketch of my interest in this site. Thanks, Brent Savchuk

My birth name is Emily Woodworth Myers. The Chillicothe, Mo. hospital where I was born misspelled my name as Meyers which has caused me problems getting a special new drivers license with a star for flying and going into federal blogs., but I have corrected it at the age of 77. I was married twice so last name was Green and then Scott. Now called Emily Myers Scott. My mother's birth name was Flora Elizabeth Hewitt. The fact that my mother named me Woodworth and her mother named her Elizabeth, to me, shows a desire to be connected to ancestors with those names. I have respect for your mailing lists, but I wonder if there would be any chance of finding any connection to a past Woodworth?

Benjamin Woodworth (1782-1874), moved from Scituate to Detroit in 1806, where he married Rachel Dicks in 1807, and started a boarding house that became Woodworth's Hotel, and later Woodworth's Steamboat Hotel. He has his own Wikipedia page: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Benjamin_Woodworth, but I don't see him here. He is the elder brother of Samuel Woodworth, the poet. His wife is my g.g.g. grandmother's sister, and he plays a major role in our early Michigan family history. I'm interested in learning about his descendants to the current day, and especially in any family history passed down through his family, especially letters, journals, or documents from early Detroit.

1. Walter, 2. Isaac, 3. Daniel, 4. William, 5. Daniel, 6. Lyman A., 7. Chester, 8. Susan (Woodworth) Drake, 9. William C. Drake, 10. Anna Mae (Drake) Moryto, 11. William T. Moryto. My Woodworth discovery came from researching Chester (1844-1909) Woodworth's Civil War service. He served with the ill-fated 16th Connecticut Volunteer Infantry at the Battle of Antietam, then discharged and re-enlisted in the Massachusetts 2nd Heavy Artillery Regiment. The birth-marriage-death evidence is sparse around the Lyman A and his father Daniel's timeline. In Suffield, CT, there were two LYMAN WOODWORTHS around the same time period. One was Lyman and the other Lyman A. Some local descendants have often mixed up their trees (as I did, until I went to the local cemeteries, viewed the gravestones and confirmed names and dates in the town records). If anyone has any information on this branch, I would love to hear from you. Thanks!

I am Kevin James Brown, son of Lawrence "Larry" Arthur Brown and Karen Ann Woodworth Brown, both from Lyndonville, NY. I was born February 13, 1967. I am the grand son of Grant Elwyn Woodworth, great grandson of Elwyn Woodworth who is the son of Willett Woodworth. I currently live in Atlanta, GA with my partner, Allison Beth Schultz, from Shortsville, NY. I was born in Medina, NY, raised in Lyndonville, NY and spent most of my adult life in and around Rochester, NY. I have two sons, Andrew James Piejko-Brown born April 9, 1992 (wife Sarah Piejko of Utica, NY) who was married December 30, 2016 and lives in Bridgewater, MA and another son Jason William Brown, born April 9, 1995 who is living in Rochester, NY and is a student at SUNY Oswego. Both are born of my former wife Kathleen Marie Andre Brown, who resides in Rochester, NY. I had a second wife for a brief time in my life, Kimberly Ann Hughes Brown, who resides in Spencerport, NY. We did not have any children. I have two siblings. Kristin Sue Brown Wadford (husband Calvin Eugene Wadford) who resides in Lyndonville, NY. They have two sons, Mitchell and Steven, both living in Lyndonville as well. My other sister is Beth Ann Brown Hill (husband Michael Hill) who resides in Middleport/Barker, NY with their two sons Andrew and Zachary. My family genealogy has started to become captivating. I have started a family tree on WikiTree and with the help of other relatives have been adding names as they are found. I have been spending the last few nights looking through all the information you have documented and made available to the public. Thank you! It is very impressive and amazing the amount of time you have dedicated to the family history. The members of the Willett Woodworth family have been having a documented family reunion since 1924. As secretary of the family, my mother has "the books" with all this information. It, too, is very interesting reading. Each year the reunion is held at a family members house around August 5th, which I have always been told was Aunt Lucy's birthday. I will have "the books" in my possession for a long weekend this year and it is my intension to transcribe the books into an electronic documentation. I also intend to scan or photograph the individual pages in hopes to preserve original wording. I thank you again for all the fantastic reading material about the Woodworth family. You have inspired me to dig a bit deeper to trace more of my family roots. Very kindly, your cousin, Kevin Brown

Late-blooming genealogist (using the term LOOSELY!) and (most likely) related to Woodworth's through my wife's line. Just out of curiosity, has anyone on THIS site been using WikiTree? (I do see at least one profile manager there for Walter Woodworth, b. abt 1612.) Wondering how much research overlap exists!! Thanks to everyone who does ALL the behind-the-scenes work!!

I FOUND THIS AWESOME WEBSITE WHILE WORKING ON MY MANN/SPENCER FAMILY TREE. MARY WOODWORTH WAS MARRIED TO BENJAMIN SPRAGUE, AND THEIR DAUGHTER WAS MARY SPRAGUE,AND SHE MARRIED NATHANIEL MANN,FROM SCITUATE,PLYMOUTH COUNTY,MASSACHUSETTS. WALTER WOODWORTH IS ONE OF MY GREAT GRANDFATHERS,ALONG WITH HIS SON JOSEPH WOODWORTH. I HAVE FOUND GENEALOGY RESEARCHING A AMAZING EXPERIENCE, BECAUSE AS I LEARN ABOUT EACH FAMILY MEMBER,I FEEL THAT I KNOW THEM,AND NOT JUST LOOKING AT A NAME ON PAPER. MY MANN FAMILY TAKES ME TO RICHARD MANN,BORN 1611 IN NORWICH,NORFOLK,ENGLAND. HE IMMIGRATED TO MASSACHUSETTS,AND LIKE WALTER WOODWORTH,HE LAID OUT THE TOWN OF SCITUATE,PLYMOUTH CO,AT JUST ABOUT THE SAME TIME AS WALTER. RICHARD MANN AND WALTER WOODWORTH WERE A YEAR APART,AND I CAN BET THEY KNEW EACH OTHER. THERE IS A BOOK OUT ABOUT THE DESCENDANTS OF RICHARD MANN,FROM SCITUATE,AND CAN BE DOWNLOADED. THE BOOK IS IN A PDF FILE,AND YOU CAN FIND IT ON GOOGLE.BOTH RICHARD MANN AND WALTER WOODWORTH ARE MY 8th GREAT GRANDFATHERS,WHICH I FIND IS AMAZINGLY AWESOME. THANK YOU FOR MAKING THE WOODWORTH GENEALOGY WEBSITE.

According to what I have read, the Battle of Bemis Heights was fought in front of their house and General Gage took over the Woodworth house to use as his headquarters. Those of us researching our Moore line have yet to be able to find the name of the wife of Phineas Moore Sr. Any help from our Woodworth cousins would be appreciated. I have enjoyed reading about the Woodworth reunions and looking at the pictures. I also appreciate the DNA work done on the Woodworths.
